As to the question is such really, between you and the Republicans of Massachusetts. Let us begin at the beginning.

The Boston Journal's Washington special says that volumious papers in favor of the appointment of E. K. O'Beren as Collector of Castoms for the Waldoboro district were filed by that gentleman on Monday. There are now four candidates, Mr. Wilson, member of the Democratic National Committee, Mr. Moore, of Rockland Post, and ex-County Attorney Staples. IT SAVE . TWO LIVES. FROM MRS A. B. SNOW, GREENVILLE, ME.

Two of my mighbors children very sick with croup. I was told that they could not live, that everything possible had been done for them and they were growing worse. I had been using Balsam f Wintergreen in my family, and knew what it was in throat troubles. I took it and went immediately to them. They could scare ly breath when we commenced giving the Whitergreen, but in less than half an hour they were easier and be-fore morning were out of danger. A know saved both of their lives.

FROM WAS LINGTE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 77. At the Cabinet inneeting to-day the season was devoted principally to a consideration of questions arising under the establishment of a bouncary line between the United States and Mexico, and resulted in the formulation of a series of, instructions to the officers lengaged in that service on behalf of this government. The question of allowing the publication by the press of the annual reports of the bureau officers in advance of their being submitted to Congress was also considered and it was decided to leave the matter entirely to the heads of the respective departments to which the bureaus are attached. These reports and also those of most members of the Cabinet have for many lyears been made public in advance of their submission in bulk to Congress with the President's annual message.

THE BOSTON SENSATION. .

Commit Murder Held in $5,000. BOSTON, Oct. 27. The wom in in or a rest at headquarters since Saturday night, spiracy, is Mrs. Emma Cooledge, wife or Officer James E. Cooledge, of the Boston of police. Her identify was conceased so enceutily that even her husband was not aware of her stress until this morphing. This aftertoon Mrs. Cooledge was until Joseph Bennet appearing as her counse. The charge against her, according to the warrant, reads, "sol citing aid to come t muder." She pleased not guilty-and was held in $5,000 for her appearance for examination December 11th. The case was disposed of very quietty and but fiss or the spectators in the room known that the contract of the properties of the securities in speculation and had sold the remainder of the spectators in the room known that the contract of the properties of the securities in speculation and had sold the remainder of the spectators in the room known that the contract of the properties of the securities in the properties of the securities of the securities in the properties of the securities in the properties of the securities of rest at headquarters since Saturday night, in connection with the Baltimore cor-spiracy, is Mrs. Emma Cooledge, wife of Officer James E. Cooledge, of the Boston animation December 11th. The case was disposed of very quietly and but few of the spectators in the room knew what had transpired.

Mrs. Cooledge looked very de ceted, and her eyes wer red with weeping. She is a large woman and fair-looking. It appears that she visited Bose Cobe's place of Nonman street, where the plot wat arranged, three times. Her husband had a short man terview with her to-day; but she had little to say. She claimed she did not intend to allow murder to be committed, but, wanted terview with neit dealy out she had alter to say. She claimed she did not intend to allow murder to be committed, but winted to get hold of the money, $1,000, and keep it. She did not make a conditant of her husband in the matter, which throws a doubt upon the honesty of her claim. She also claims that she, was dragged into it but does not say how.

The husband knew; nothing of Elden Mellen and says he has no idea how, his wife became negatiated with him or was induced to enter into the plot. He fleets deeply grieved over the affair. He has been married to her about seven years and has a little girl. His homelis broken up and he intends to put the child away. It is possible he may enter a suit for daa ages against the police for the muner in which they treated the prisener! The liew says a prisoner cannot be held more than 24 hours except on holiday's or Sunday's without arraignment. Mrs. Cooledge was defained three days and was not allowed communication with her husband! or friends although she desired to, it is alleged. Much sympathy is felt for her husband who has the reputation of being a conscientious and hubthal police officer.

A despatch from Baltimore this after moon states that Assistant: District Attraner Dacey, Inspector Garrughty and Jo m Donahue, allas "John Buil," or Bostan, are in that city. Donahue is the man with owns approached, it is alleged, with the proposition to commit the murder. The man to whom the despatch was directed, on account of which firs. Cooledge was a rested Saturday night, is A. J. Mellen, proprietor of the St. James Hotel, in Builtimore, and the Boston officers are numble to tend him. His son, who has been living in lodgings with his wife, refuses to believe the story.

the story. Baltimons, Oct. 27. The Besten detectives me understead to be here for the purpose of arresting Mr. Mellen, but refuse to be interriewed. One of them said to-night he knew the story sounded improbable, but the real motive for the morder was nown only to himself and would not be reniged till the evidence was completed. oung Mellen ridiculed the idea that there was any conspiracy on his fatter's part and does not believe there was any schedie on fact to marder his wife.

Financier Best Arrested.

Boston, Oct. 21. Win. J. Best, financier, who was prominently cornected with the collapsed Pacifit. Bank of this city, was ar ested it New York to day charged with enabership 375,000 as trustee of the will of the hate Francis N. Caruth. The latter left a frind of $70,000, the income of which wis to go to his son, W. W. Caruth. Before the Pacific failed young Caruth borrowed $70,000 from the bank on his personal note, and as security for, the on transfer ed to the bunk the income of the fund. After the failure of the bank, Best, as an expert, was placed in practical churge of the bank's 'affairs. When Receiver Price took charge of the wreck he Carath applied to the Probate Courf for Best's removal, which was granted and Charles B. White was appointed. He tried to secure as accounting from Roston, but was unsuccessful. Evidence is groung that Best used a portion of the securities in speculation and had sold the remainder outright. On this evidence of e case was brought before the grand jury, an indictment found and he was to-day taken into custody. Chief Inspector Hansoom left New York to-night for Boston with the prisoner.

The doctors give her morofessional attention and very little nursing is done except by convalescent patients. The cries of the patients for water are often heart ren illog and are jonly met ir eften heart rending and are only met by a response to "shut up." No deedorizing attention is given to those sent to the black; small pox ward. The cries from that awful place are frightful. The place is said to be intested with vermin.
